Current policy: risk flags and caution points

[MEDIUM] Co-payment of 10% (p.3) - You pay this share of admissible claims.
[MEDIUM] Pre-existing disease waiting period of 36 months (p.2) - Claims linked to pre-existing conditions are not payable during this period.
[MEDIUM] Specific-disease waiting period of 24 months (p.2) - Listed procedures (e.g. cataract, hernia, joint replacement) wait this long.
[MEDIUM] Room rent is capped (p.3) - 1% of sum insured per day. Choosing a costlier room can reduce other payable charges too - confirm 'proportionate deduction'.
[MEDIUM] ICU charges are capped (p.3) - 2% of sum insured per day
[MEDIUM] 4 disease-wise sub-limits (p.3) - cataract, hernia, hysterectomy, joint replacement
[MEDIUM] 3 discretionary or vague clauses (p.3) - Wording such as 'at the Company's discretion' or 'from time to time' can change outcomes.
[LOW] No restoration / recharge benefit (p.2) - Sum insured is not refilled after it is exhausted.

Questions to ask your advisor / insurer

1. Does the co-payment apply to every claim, or only for certain ages, zones or treatments? Can it be waived?
2. From which date does the pre-existing disease waiting period count, and which conditions does the insurer treat as pre-existing?
3. Which exact procedures carry the specific-disease waiting period?
4. Is there proportionate deduction on other charges if my room costs more than the limit?
5. Is there any separate cap on ICU charges? Please confirm in writing.
6. What is the exact rupee sub-limit for each listed treatment, and is it per eye / per event / per year?
7. How does the insurer exercise the discretionary clauses (underwriting, 'as decided by the Company')? Are there examples?
8. Does the restoration benefit apply to the same illness, and how many times per year?
9. Please share the final policy wording and customer information sheet so I can verify these points.

Limitations and responsible-AI note

Values were extracted automatically from the uploaded documents and may be incomplete or misread, especially for scanned files. Scores come from a model trained on a synthetic dataset and describe how clear and restrictive the wording appears; they do not predict whether a claim will be paid. This report does not recommend buying, switching, renewing or cancelling any policy. A human review of the original policy wording by the insurer or a licensed advisor is required before any decision.
